Over the years this is probably the tenth or more copy of "Treatise On The Gods" (TOTG) I have purchased. I collect all books by and about H. L. Mencken (HLM). If a friend expresses an interest in HLM, I give him a copy because this is the most complete survey of all the Gods who have ever lived (and died).

Treatise on the Gods by H.L. Mencken: 9780307830920 ...

In this sardonic, blasphemous and sometimes ferociously cynical pamphlet, H.L. Mencken castigates the irrationality and incredibility of all religions, e.g. there are 175.000 discrepancies in the manuscripts of the Christian New Testament. But he considers religion rightly as one of ( for him) the greatest inventions of all times, giving the clergy enormous economical (all the temples became extremely rich) and political power.
